Stookey's Club Moderne

HERE'S HOW!

SAN FRANCISCO'S STREAMLINE MODERNE COCKTAIL LOUNGE

FAVORITES

100 REASONS RYE™

(T.A. Stookey, 2008)

Rye, Sweet Vermouth, Orange Liqueur, Orange Bitters

100 Reasons Rye is our signature cocktail. It's a variation on a Manhattan - barrel aged in heavily charred, fresh white American oak. Watch for the flaming finish!

$20

AGED NEGRONI

(2007)

Campari, Sweet Vermouth & Gin

A take on the classic Italian favorite from 1919, our version is aged in American white oak barrels.

$20

NEW YORK SOUR

(1880s / 1930s)

Rye, Fresh Lemon, Egg White, Cabernet Sauvignon

A 1930's take on a classic from the 1880s, this cocktail (originally the Chicago Sour) was invented in Chicago but popularized in New York by the right people.

$20

AVIATION

(Ensslin, 1915)

Gin, Maraschino, Creme de Violette, Fresh Lemon

Evoking the spirit of the skies with its blue coloration, this cocktail was a favorite before prohibition and made famous at the Hotel Wallack, NYC.

$20

FRENCH 75

(1920s, France)

Gin, Fresh Lemon, Sparkling Wine

Created in the early art deco years of 1920s Paris, this swellegant drink was curiously named after an artillery piece from The Great War (1914-1918).

$18

Brandy, Fresh Lemon, Green Chartreuse, Angostura Bitters
This is a cocktail worthy of this elegant Parisian boulevard.
$20

20TH CENTURY
(Tuck, 1937)
Gin, Fresh Lemon, Kina, Crème de Cacao
When we first came across the recipe for this cocktail, it seemed like it would never work.
Boy were we wrong!
$20

BONFIRE
(Blong, 2016)
Mezcal, Gran Classico, Sweet Vermouth, Chocolate Bitters
This cocktail is like sitting by a fire without the smoke, wind, or mosquitos.
$20

MAI TAI
("Trader" Vic Bergeron, 1944)
Jamaica Rum, Fresh Lime, Orgeat, Curaçao
Our version is as close as we can get to Vic's original creation.
$20

MADAM SATAN
(Blong, 2023)
Tequila, Raspberry, Fresh Lime Juice, Ancho Verde
Liqueur, Habanero Tincture, Peach Bitters
This drink was inspired by the 1930 Cecil B. De Mille motion picture.

$20

PENDENNIS CLUB
(1908)
Gin, Apricot Brandy, Fresh Lime, Peychaud's Bitters
This drink was named after the historic Pendennis Club in Louisville, Kentucky. While the cocktail hails from the heart of bourbon country, there is nary a drop of bourbon in it.
$20

BEE'S KNEES
(Meier, 1921)
Gin, Fresh Lemon, Honey
This one's a classic from the 1920s. We think that our mix of gin, lemon and honey is the Cat's Pajamas, but really it's The Bee's Knees!
$20

ABOUT US

THE ORIGINS OF STOOKEY'S CLUB MODERNE
895 BUSH STREET, SAN FRANCISCO

"In an all-night drugstore on the corner of Bush and Taylor Streets, [Sam] Spade used a telephone. 'Precious' he said...Miles [Archer] has been shot...Yes, He's dead..."
—Dashiell Hammett, The Maltese Falcon (1929)

Stookey's Club Moderne is the site of the all-night drugstore in Hammett's novel detailing the events that took place in San Francisco - on Bush Street - on a cold and foggy night in 1928.

For nearly 100 years, the sale of alcohol at the corner of Bush and Taylor, San Francisco has been a success (from drugstore to liquor store to bars/cocktail lounges). When the Stookey's team took over this space at 895 Bush Street in 2014, we learned that this mixed-use building was developed as apartments and commercial spaces in 1923. 895 Bush street housed an all-night pharmacy with 24 hour delivery service. In the midst of prohibition (1920-1933), the only way to "legally" buy alcohol was with a doctor's prescription and having access to the right drugstore.

When Stookey's Club Moderne opened its doors in 2015, the goal was to create an experience for patrons of what it would have been like to be in a sophisticated Post-Prohibition cocktail lounge in San Francisco. We researched classic cocktail recipes, design elements, glassware, music and San Francisco history to provide our patrons with a magical, delicious, step back in time...

HERE'S HOW!
